DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 6, 11, and 13-15 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-4 of copending Application No. 11/153,645. Inventions of claims 1-4 of '645 application disclose inventions of 6, 11, and 13-15 of the instant application except for a base and a casing. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to provide a base and a casing on the device of claims 1-4 of '645 application since the use of base and casing is old and well known in the art for the purpose of placing the workpiece and sheltering parts of a punching apparatus (e.g., Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (hereafter AAPA), Cutter (US 3,967,336)).

Art Unit: 3724

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 6 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over AAPA (see Fig. 2a) in view of Almblad et al. (US 4,651,604).

AAPA discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the handle member and the stopper being attachable and detachable with pins penetrating holes on the handle member and the stopper and corresponding holes on the transmitting shaft. Almblad teaches a handle member (e.g., 37) detachably secure to a shaft by a pin (e.g., 39) penetrating a hole on the handle member and a hole on the shaft (e.g., Fig. 2). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of AAPA to provide a detachable member as taught by Almblad in order to facilitate replacement of the member. The separation of elements, where removability would be desirable, is a design consideration within the skill of the art. It is noted that the element 11 of the modified device of AAPA is exchangeable between the ends.

5. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over AAPA in view of Almblad as applied to claim 6, and further in view of Chen (D489,763).

The modified device of AAPA discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for hexagonal posts and hollow hexagonal ends. Chen teaches a hexagonal post engaging a hollow hexagonal end. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ a hexagonal post engaging a hollow hexagonal end as taught by Chen on the modified device of AAPA in order to interlock the handle and the stopper with the shaft to facilitate positioning of the handle and the stopper on the shaft.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments, see Pre-appeal brief request for review, filed April 27, 2006, with respect to the rejections of claims under Cutter in view of Frederick have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made as set forth above.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
